Neighborology

Practicing Compassion as a Way of Life

DAVID S. APPLE

January 2017

“Neighborology grows out of several decades of successful holistic ministry leading a large, center-city, evangelical congregation into greatly expanded ministry with their most neglected neighbors.”

—Ronald J. Sider

Distinguished Professor of Theology, Holistic Ministry, and Public Policy
Palmer Seminary at Eastern University

Written as a follow-up to Not Just a Soup Kitchen, David Apple's Neighborology explores how the church can be the neighborly helpers God intended, and how we can help the helpers serve smarter and more effectively. Drawing from his experience as a church leader, mercy ministry director and pastor, Apple provides practical instruction and invaluable resources for building up today's and tomorrow's servant leaders.

“What you will discover in these pages is that God has a strategy for successfully confronting the effect of any words that are shaping your life in a manner contrary to His wonderful plan.”

—from The Broken Curse

A cruel remark or a biting criticism can become like a curse. It has the power to set the course of your life. But, in Christ, there is freedom from that curse. Tom Elliff knows this from personal experience. In The Broken Curse, he shares his story of personal deliverance, along with God’s “secret” for breaking the curse of words.

Tom Elliff writes from over fifty years in ministry as pastor, ministry leader and missionary. Most recently, he served as president of the International Mission Board, the global mission arm of the Southern Baptist Convention. Tom and his wife, Jeannie (now deceased), are blessed with four children, twenty-five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

“ He [Watchman Nee] disciplined himself through life to be like Samuel, God’s priestly bell ringer: staying alert while others slept, warning His people of peril and arousing them to a new day’s dawning. ”

—from Against the Tide

With millions of books sold, studied and translated, Watchman Nee strongly influenced modern Christian thinking. A dedicated evangelist and gifted Bible teacher, Nee stood against the tide of Chinese Marxist atheism and Communism, and was imprisoned for his faith. In this revised edition of Nee’s biography, read about his extraordinary life and let it inspire you to a new level of faith and commitment.

Angus Ian Kinnear was born in Woolwich, London. After serving as a medical missionary in India, Kinnear returned to England to work as a general practitioner. From London, he translated the works of Watchman Nee into English and wrote Nee’s biography, Against the Tide. Kinnear was known for his passion for helping others through continuing education and writing and for his deep Christian faith.

The Secret Series

The Secret of Intercession ■ The Secret of the Abiding Presence ■ The Secret of Adoration

ANDREW MURRAY

April 2017

Written over a period of five years, these small booklets contain a wealth of teaching that is based on Andrew Murray's mature and full experience in Christ. Briefly yet eloquently, Murray teaches that when we persistently pursue God our lives and faith are strengthened. Each book contains one month of daily selections that reveal the power of intercession, the peace that comes with resting in the presence of God, and the importance of true worship in the lives of believers.

Andrew Murray, born in 1828, was raised in South Africa, received his master's from Aberdeen University and pursued theological training at Utrecht University in Holland, where he was ordained in 1848. Murray went from being a discouraged young minister at age twenty-five to becoming one of the all-time best-loved writers on the deeper Christian life. In his eighty-eight years, he wrote over 240 books and tracts, including classics like Humility, The Secret of Intercession and Abide in Christ, which have been read by millions and continue to transform lives today. To learn more about Murray, read Andrew Murray: The Authorized Biography by Leona Choy.

He's Still on the Throne

Finding Hope in a World of Trouble

STUART BRISCOE

May 2017

“Once set apart for Him, the believer needs to recognize the necessity of behaving differently; in fact, behaving in a manner which is compatible with the new standing. This new behavior is the result of the continual “sanctifying work” of the Spirit. The end of this ongoing experience comes when finally, in the risen Lord’s presence, we see Him and become like Him.”

—from He's Still on the Throne

Woven throughout with rich insights from First Peter, Stuart Briscoe’s He’s Still on the Throne will help you find answers during life’s challenging moments. Taking a positive, humorous and intensely practical approach, Stuart gives clues on finding joy in suffering for Christ, discovering peace in the midst of conflict, and growing as a Christian in the midst of deceit and hypocrisy.

Stuart Briscoe was born in the north of England in 1930. After leaving school, he embarked on a banking career, served in the Royal Marines during the Korean War and, at seventeen years of age, preached his first sermon. Since that time, he has ministered on every continent, written more than forty books, pastored a church for thirty years and founded a media ministry called Telling the Truth which now broadcasts daily worldwide. He has been married to Jill for more than fifty-five years and has three children and thirteen grandchildren.

Faith in the Mosaic

Finding a Biblical Focus in a Pluralistic World

BRUCE A. MCDOWELL

June 2017

“How should we think about those outside faith in Christ and their eternal destiny in light of our faith’s claims to special revelation defining the true and only God, biblical authority, and exclusivity to salvation through Christ alone?

Are we the only ones who are right? How can we know? At a time when so many are looking for tolerance, freedom, peace, and unity, how should we respond from a Christ-centered perspective?”

—from Faith in the Mosaic

We live in a pluralistic age—and we come into contact with people from different faith traditions on a daily basis. This context challenges our faith. How should we, as Christians, think about those outside of our faith? Are we the only ones who are right? How do we know? Bruce A. McDowell’s Faith in the Mosaic will help you wade through those questions.

Paperback ISBN: 978-1-61958-247-7

Price: $13.99 • 324 pages

E-Book ISBN: 978-1-61958-248-4

Dr. Bruce A. McDowell was born to missionaries in Paraguay. He has traveled and ministered in forty-five countries doing orphan and relief ministry, training and ordaining pastors, preaching and lecturing. He serves as Minister of Global Outreach at Tenth Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, PA, where he has been on staff since 1982. Throughout his career, he has directed an international student ministry and led short-term teams to serve with Tenth’s global partners. He serves as adjunct faculty at Westminster Theological Seminary and has authored several books. He holds degrees from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary (MATS), Westminster Theological Seminary (DMin) and American University of Biblical Studies (PhD). Bruce is married to Anne, and he has two adult daughters who serve the Lord.

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED

The Purpose

To make evangelical Christian literature available to all nations so that people may come to faith and maturity in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Product

Timeless and trusted books dealing with repentance, holiness and a fresh experience of God through the work of the Holy Spirit, conforming us to the image of Christ.

The Publisher

CLC Publications is an outreach of CLC Ministries International, a global literature mission with work in over fifty countries.
